

Erica Nicole

What People Are Saying?

"Erica is the voice I always want to hear more of. I know that no matter the song, she's going to make me love it! Add to that her inner beauty and outer gorgeousness, throw in some inspired acting and a deep passion for performing, and you've got the star that is Erica Nicole."

-Aaron Hagen
Vocal Guru

"Erica Nicole exudes droll cheeriness without falling into cruel stereotype as superintendent Gary Coleman - the has-been TV star who earned and lost a fortune but somehow still can flaunt a million-dollar smile".

-M. Grossberg
Columbus Dispatch

"[Erica Nicole] is exciting, vulnerable, sexy, funny & pure talent"

-E. Briscoe
Director

Who Is She?

Daughter of a Mississippi sharecropper . . . (wair, wrong story) . . .

Born in Fort Worth, Texas, Erica Nicole's roots are firmly planted in the South. She loves and makes a mean batch of collard greens, cornbread and black-eyed peas like nobody's business. She was raised in Washington state, but could not stay away from Texas for long—she received a Bachelors of Science in Psychology from Texas Wesleyan University.

Next, Erica was off to New York City to pursue a career in Theatre. She attended the American Musical and Dramatic Academy, focusing on musical theatre. She landed her first show, Ain't Misbehavin' before graduating. Upon graduation, she's had numerous shows, some of her favorites include Disney's Hercules, FAME, Tintypes, and Avenue Q.

Erica, has also sung background for various artists and recorded her own music. www.ericanicole.net

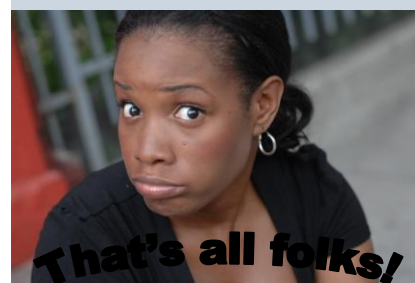

What Is She Doing?

She can most recently be seen in the Donnie Wahlberg film "Tony's Dream"

Erica moved to Los Angeles from New York in January 2010 and is excited about the fact that she is now waking up to sunshine and palm trees!

Looking forward to a successful year and ready to get to work fulfilling her dreams & sharing her passion for arts with millions!

"Your dreams minus your doubts, equal your reality."
